13th Sunday Ordinary Time

13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." - Mk 5:36bc, 38-39

MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From Safari.....

The hazy, lazy days of summer will be at the midpoint as we celebrate the Fourth of July this week. With parades, picnics, and fireworks we will proudly celebrate those self-evident truths that all are created equal and are endowed by God with certain unalienable Rights -- Life, Liberty, Religious Freedom, and the Pursuit of Happiness. We will also recall all those who have and are defending our way of life across the world.

In his book, Memory and Identity, St. John Paul II, warned about confusing Nationalism with Patriotism. "Whereas nationalism involves recognizing and pursuing the good of one's own nation alone, without regard for the rights of others, patriotism, on the other hand, is a love for one's native land that accords rights to all other nations equal to those claimed for one's own. (p. 67)"

Pope Francis reminds us what our Eucharistic gathering is to be about. "Here, all our distinctions, labels and masks fall away: it is the moment of truth. Will we bend down to touch and heal the wounds of others?" (Fratelli Tutti, no. 70.)

I share with you part of a reflection written by Pat Marrin, for your rumination.

"Should there be a healthy tension and a holy dissonance when Jesus is invoked and the Mass is celebrated on the Fourth of July? The answer is yes. How this is articulated will range from respectful silence to strong rejection of all jingoistic self-aggrandizement. But the underlying truth of every Eucharistic celebration is that God, by becoming the victim of human violence in Christ, rejects the use of killing to save or alter history. We are called to change history, but the only path the followers of Jesus may take is nonviolent resistance to evil and the achievement of justice through selfless love.

If this seems too idealistic or even mystical for the real world, then it is fair to ask the "real" world what war has ever won that diplomacy and determined appeals to justice and morality could not have gained as well. Let history judge that a different America would have emerged without bloody revolution, the forced removal of native peoples, the practice of slavery and expansionist wars against Mexico and Spain. Isn't this the key historical question: What might we have become as a nation had nonviolence been honored as the central tenet of democracy — social change through debate and the ballot box, not by force of arms?

(Ministry & Life Perspectives Continued)

This bold experiment is in fact already woven into the U.S. Constitution — rights and freedoms based on the essential dignity and equality of every person. God was recognized by the framers of the Constitution as the source and measure of human dignity. Therefore, a nonviolent social order that respects all life is the true land of the free and the home of the brave.

This powerful dream of human dignity is celebrated at every Mass; it is the essence of the law and the prophets and the message of Jesus, whose image on the cross is the real sign and source of all our freedom."

Have a faith filled week and a Happy and Safe 4th of July!

Fr. Ron

“...as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality.” - 2 Corinthians 8:14

One of the tenants of living a grateful and generous lifestyle is giving without expecting anything in return. It is important that we not only grow, nurture, and share our gifts; but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our Catholic faith. We are the “Body of Christ.” We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.

The Bishop's Annual Appeal proudly supports respect-for-life efforts in the diocese. Your generosity helps make this possible. To donate, visit www.stcdio.org/annualappeal or mail to: Bishop's Annual Appeal, PO Box 1538, St. Cloud, MN 56302.

SAVE THE DATE

Save the Date – St. John Vianney Drama on September 8

Leonardo deFillipis is president of Saint Luke Productions, specializing in Catholic live theater with dramatic presentations on the lives of the saints. (Some may remember him being at Sacred Heart a number of years ago to present St. Maximilian Kolbe, the martyr of Auschwitz.) Leonardo will be in the Saint Cloud Diocese in early September and will be presenting a 90-minute drama on St. John Vianney the evening of Sunday, September 8 at Sacred Heart. This is an event suitable for anyone around teenage and up, and is ideal for the ongoing Eucharistic Revival in our country. This is another “watch for more information” item, but please reserve the evening of September 8 for a moving and inspiring drama.

Shrub trimming needed: With all the rain we have gotten, the shrubs around the church are growing like crazy! We are looking for some people to trim the shrubs. This is something that you can do when it is convenient for you, no specific date set from us. If you are interested or to get more information, please contact Vicki in the office or email at vsanborn@sacredheartsaukrapids.org Thank you!

AV HELP NEEDED

A few more people are needed to help with Audio Visual Ministry about once a month. There are three parts to our system: the projection screens, the sound, and the livestream video. The screens are relatively easy to operate. If you have any experience with PowerPoint you can easily advance the slides during Mass. Basic sound operation includes unmuting microphones and adjusting the volume. Sacred Heart has two cameras that are used for livestream video and a cool camera switching system. For more information contact the parish office or stop by the AV desk before or after Mass.

ELECTRONIC GIVING

As summer falls upon us, many people begin thinking of weekends at the cabin with family and friends. Please keep Sacred Heart in mind for your charitable giving. One way to give regularly is by electronic giving. That can be set up for weekly, monthly or quarterly donations. Even one time gifts if you so choose. Go to the parish website at www.sacredheartsaukrapids.org to donate. It is easy to set up! Thank you for your commitment and generous support of Sacred Heart and our parish ministries.

FAITH FORMATION

Faith Formation schedules are still being finalized and should be ready and on the website in early July. There also are two exciting new initiatives in faith formation that One in Christ ACC will be starting next program year. I think these efforts have potential to strengthen faith formation in the ACC and allow the parishes to better support you as parents in sharing faith. I will send you updates when they are ready. If you have any questions about the registration or faith formation in general, please feel free to contact me.
