MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From Safari.....

With today's feast of Christ the King, another liturgical year comes to an end. Pope Pius XI instituted this feast in 1925 in response to the rise of totalitarianism. It celebrates Christ's reign over the human race and human hearts. The feast emphasizes God's ultimate forgiveness as well as Christ's eschatological return and final sovereignty over all creation.

The kingdom of Christ our King, is unlike any other the earth has ever seen. He has no military might, passes no laws, imposes no taxes and does not lord it over his kingdom. He rules by grace and love, and his rule extends to the farthest reaches of the universe.

Yes, Kingdom of God is among us. If you listen to the news, it is hard to believe that the Kingdom of God is among us. The news has been filled with arguments concerning COVID 19 and vaccines, the polarization of politics, and seemingly more intense natural disasters and whether this a result of climate change. If you look back over history there has never been a "Golden Age" of the Kingdom of God, though some eras have certainly posed greater challenges than others.

Perhaps it is more about where you look. Every era has contributed faithful women and men who form the "great cloud of witnesses" who witnessed to the Kingdom of God. The truth is that all around us, there are examples of people faithfully loving and caring for their ill spouses. There are others who donate time making meals for the homeless. Still others who drive others to doctor appointments or grocery shop for someone who is homebound. Each day you can find examples of love breaking into our world.

Each of us was baptized not into some exclusive club but rather into the living Body of Christ, the Kingdom of God. Yes, the Kingdom of God is here through the power of God working within our minds and hearts. Our faithfulness towards those we love, our forgiveness toward those who have injured us in action or words, our reaching out to the needy; all of these and many other thoughtful words and deeds reveal the power of the Kingdom of God at work in our world. We all have the responsibility making the kingdom visible to others when we relate to them with love, compassion and understanding.

Thursday is Thanksgiving. True gratitude to God is expressed by sharing God's gifts with others. If Christ is truly king of our lives, then his values shape our agenda and our treatment of others. Our care for the needy and the poor, helps prepare the way for the Kingdom of God.

Have a blessed week and a Happy Thanksgiving!

Fr. Ron

ADVENT: SEASON OF DIVINE ENCOUNTER

Advent means arrival or coming. During this sacred season, we actively recall the arrival of Jesus as the Word made flesh, and we joyfully await his final return at the end of the age. But as we remember the past and anticipate the future, we are also attentive to our divine encounters in the present, the ways God "arrives" in our everyday lives. Amy Ekeh's Advent, Season of Divine Encounter helps us look closely at three key Scripture passages to recall, recognize, and anticipate the ways God comes into our lives and our world.

Join us at Sacred Heart for a three-part Advent study titled Advent: Season of Divine Encounter Mondays beginning on December 6 from 6:30-7:30 pm in Room A. Sign up is required so please contact Jen Haman with any questions or to sign up for this event.

SFX IN HOME COMMUNION

ELECTRONIC GIVING

A great way to make your offering to your parish is through electronic giving. Most banks have "bill pay" options that allow for you to set up regular recurring "payments". Your offering is not a payment, but electronic giving does allow all of us to give even if we are unable to make it to Mass because of travel or because of not feeling well enough to attend. Or, because we are still being challenged by the pandemic, some have not yet returned to worship but want to support the parish by making donations. Do check, most parishes offer an option to sign up to give electronically directly to the parish or have donation buttons on their websites as well.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support of all parish ministries!

THE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

Why do Catholics venerate the saints? It is a common question for those who are unfamiliar with devotions and statues, medals and icons. Is not our focus to be on Jesus? Don't the saints get in the way of that single-minded trust in God's grace alone? In answer, Pope Francis notes:

The aim of this Apostolic Letter is to increase our love for this great saint, to encourage us to implore his intercession and to imitate his virtues and his zeal.

Indeed, the proper mission of the saints is not only to obtain miracles and graces, but to intercede for us before God, like Abraham and Moses, and like Jesus, the "one mediator" (1 Tim 2:5), who is our "advocate" with the Father (1 Jn 2:1) and who "always lives to make intercession for [us]" (Heb 7:25; cf. Rom 8:34). The saints help all the faithful "to strive for the holiness and the perfection of their particular state of life." Their lives are concrete proof that it is possible to put the Gospel into practice.

Jesus told us: "Learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart" (Mt 11:29). The lives of the saints too are examples to be imitated. Saint Paul explicitly says this: "Be imitators of me!" (1 Cor 4:16). By his eloquent silence, Saint Joseph says the same. Before the example of so many holy men and women, Saint Augustine asked himself: "What they could do, can you not also do?" And so he drew closer to his definitive conversion, when he could exclaim: "Late have I loved you, Beauty ever ancient, ever new!"

Saints do not distract us from Jesus, but draw us to the One they also loved in human ways, in the range of human circumstances and vocations, in both joys and sorrows, labors and contemplation, married life and celibate life. The saints show us the human imperfection we experienced healed, guided, and remade by God's grace. We do not honor them for themselves, but for what God has done through them.

How has your appreciation for St. Joseph grown this year? What part of his life would you most like to imitate?

NOVEMBER COIN COLLECTION – KIDS FIGHTING HUNGER

Please go pull up your couch cushions and round-up your old mayo jars that keep your coins and bring them to St. Francis Xavier. All loose coins placed in the collection basket at St. Francis Xavier in the month of November will be contributed to Kids Fighting Hunger. Along with that, a food packaging event will be worked out in the future – sometime in early 2022. Kids Fighting Hunger is a volunteer-driven effort to package and distribute humanitarian relief in communities worldwide (and locally) where there is immediate need. It does make passing the collection basket interesting too because of the weight of coins. So . . . put your coins in a zip lock bag (or other container) and bring them for the collection. Sharing in this way can make a big difference. Thank you for your generosity!

SFX Parish Office will be closed
 Friday, November 26th.
