28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

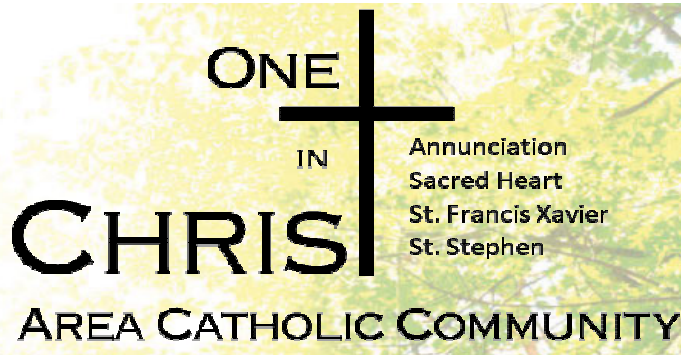

28th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."
- Mk 10:26-27

MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

We are inundated with words every day by traditional and social media. Ideas and opinions challenge us to find the truth, discerning what is authentic or fake news. Midst this backdrop we encounter the Word of God in our times of prayer both public and private. The scriptures are more than writings from centuries ago, some composed before the time of Christ, they are God's living Word. For each time we read from scripture, a new insight surfaces, a message for us today. The scriptures are filtered by the events of our daily lives, as God helps us to find meaning and truth. This week the writer of Hebrews invites to reflect upon the impact of God's word in our lives.

Our second reading for the rest of Ordinary Time comes from the Letter to the Hebrews. The letter is traditionally attributed to St. Paul. A consensus of scholars holds that the sermon or treatise titled "To the Hebrews" was destined for a community of believers who were struggling with the demands of discipleship. However, scholars are not in agreement about which community it was. Many have suggested that Hebrews' challenge to renew fervor was intended for Rome, which had one of the three largest Jewish communities of the Diaspora. The Jewish Christians in Rome were deeply acclimated to their Hellenistic environment. They were exposed to a variety of religious persuasions, and the threat of syncretism loomed large. Some in academia believe that Hebrews was addressed to Essenes, who converted to Christianity but were tempted to return to their former Jewish faith. Others posit that there were apostates within the community whose presence eroded the faith and zeal of their fellow believers. (Notes from Celebration Publications, NCR, Kansas City, 2018)

The writer of Hebrews recalls Genesis, where God spoke and the earth was formed. All of creation came to be and it was good. In addition, Isaiah 55 proclaims that, like rain and snow, the word of God accomplishes its purposes. For the writer of Hebrews, the Word of God, penetrates soul and spirit, joints and marrow. In other words, as it comes to a person it can enter the most hidden recesses of a personality.

Like it or not, the Word reveals the truth of our inner self. At times, we may reject what God's word reveals about our true selves. The Word judges because it calls to stand in the presence of God and evaluate how we are living God values.

Our reading today asks how we have allowed God's Word into our heart and soul. We are reminded that God is ever present to us, inviting us to the path of holiness.

Fr. Ron

The Creed – a Study of Catholic Faith

with Bishop Robert Barron

"I believe in one God," we say each weekend. What does that really mean? Where does that clunky word "consubstantial" come from? What is "the resurrection of the body?"

You are invited to a six-week series on The Creed, newly produced by Word on Fire Ministries and presented by Bishop Barron. Each session will watch a segment of the video series (about 45-50 minutes) followed by discussion and faith-sharing. There is no cost, but a free will offering will be accepted to cover the cost of the study guides (valued at $15).

You can watch the first session online for free at <https://creed.wordonfire.org/creed-series>

As you know, the three-year Eucharistic Revival promoted by the U.S. Bishops will begin next spring; this is a great prelude to placing the gift of the Eucharist in the larger context of our faith.

The study will meet at Sacred Heart in the Parish Hall on Monday evenings from 6:30-8:00 p.m. on the following dates: October 18 and 25, and November 8, 15, 22, and 29. All from our ACC parishes and beyond are welcome! To help with ordering materials, please call your parish office to register for the study.

YOUNG ADULT OKTOBERFEST

Save the date for Friday October 22nd from 6:00 - 8:30 PM! Come for food / drinks, fall themed games, bonfire, and more. Bring a friend, your family, etc. We hope to see you there!

Thanks to our Maintenance Committee: A few months ago, Jeff Popp from the Finance Council agreed to coordinate a Maintenance Committee to attend to various needs, large and small, for the parish facilities and grounds. Assisting Jeff with expertise and long experience in this field are Dave Zimmer, Leonard Popp, Chuck Wocken, and Dave Thene. Needs were identified and prioritized, and with the guidance of the Finance and Pastoral Councils, much has already been accomplished or is in process. A donor who wishes to remain anonymous funded several of these items so that our maintenance budget was not depleted. A list of projects that are already being worked on and those for future projects will be available at the back of Church. If you see additional items that need attention please don't hesitate to contact Jeff. A huge Thank You to the committee and to those who donate money, time and talent to make all this possible.

Thanks
