15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. - Mk 6:7, 13

MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From Safari,

Several years ago, while on sabbatical in Australia, I joined 11 other people from across the world and a guide to spend 3 days in the Outback. We hiked around Uluru (aka Ayers Rock) and in Kings

Canyon. We were each given a swag (Australian for sleeping bag) and were restricted to bringing only a standard backpack for our personal items. During the daytime hours non-biting black flies surrounded us by the hundreds. Several of us had bug head nets. The locals who go without protective gear, joke the flies help clean the nostrils and ears. While eating lunch it seemed impossible not to consume a few bugs. One evening as a post dinner treat our guide lightly roasted some witchetty grubs for our culinary delight. (He had freshly gathered them in the afternoon.) In case you are wondering, the grubs tasted like a soggy french fry.

This memory came to mind as I read again the Gospel of Mark, that the disciples were sent out two by two, taking only a walking stick and sandals --- no food, no sack, no money in their belts. The instructions seem insane.

Perhaps the simplicity Jesus urged on his disciples was intended to help them to focus on the needs of others and the task at hand rather than on their own needs or creature comforts. Could it be that Jesus intended his disciples to live like the people to whom they were being sent? They were not to export or impose their own culture.

Regardless the disciples were to entrust themselves to God. To believe that God would provide for their needs by moving the hearts of those to whom they are being sent to offer a kind welcome.

What might today's gospel mean for us? Certainly it is to trust God walks with us always on our pilgrimage of life. In the words of Psalm 23, "The Lord is my Shepherd there is nothing I lack."

Dick Folger offers this insight, "Jesus' "no bag" instruction sounds very wise if we're flying. But perhaps Jesus is speaking of a heavier kind of baggage that we need to leave behind if we are going to follow him. That heavy bag is fear. It is packed with images of being unqualified, fears of not being able to perform, of not knowing what to say or do, fear of being rejected and the ultimate, humiliating image of failure."

What do you need to leave behind to follow Jesus? And while you ponder, enjoy a grub or two.

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts."
Mark 6:8

Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God's providential care. Think of all the material things "we can't live without" in today's world. We make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting God first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don't become "slaves" to wanting to acquire more things.

Help us instruct all ages in the Catholic Faith. Diocesan ministries provide meaningful opportunities for faith formation to people of all ages and stages of life. Diocesan initiatives educate and support faith leaders in our churches and schools, engage youth in learning Catholic teaching, involve whole families in nurturing their faith and help young adults to live the Gospel message. See how your donations support Catholic formation by viewing our video at: <https://youtu.be/Y4uT9k4VBVo>

LOAVES FOR LEARNING/CAMPBELL SOUP LABELS

UPC codes and soup labels used to be collected for the school to raise money. The companies have stopped these programs so we will no longer be collecting those things. There are ways you can designate funds to go to the school of your choice at Target and Coborn's. You can go to their websites or look within their app to find more details.
